Medical Missions to the Miskito Indians
Linda and Bob May, Team Leader

Purpose of this journey: To minister through medical missions and evangelism to reach the Miskito Indians.

Team skills:

1. Medical expertise – doctors, nurses, dentists, dental hygienists, pharmacists, optometrists, veterinarian
2. The gift of evangelism – There will be many opportunities to share the gospel–in homes or at the clinic as people wait to see a doctor
3. Willingness to assist in pharmacy, crowd control, children’s activities, or clothing give away as needed

This is a journey for the brave and the strong. After the plane and bus ride, the team will travel by canoe upriver to select villages to conduct medical clinics among the Miskito Indians. These are an unreached people group in great need. Missionaries and local believers will follow up with contacts during the following months.

Estimated cost: $1850
March payment, $500
April payment, $500
May payment, $450
