first jackson

thirties

First Jackson: Thirties is a Sunday School class that addresses the concerns that those in their thirties face everyday, while exploring how God's word is still relevant in today's world. There is no background check so all are welcome to attend, whether you are single and never been married or have experienced a divorce.

The class stays focused on learning God's word because this is its central purpose for meeting. From this class you can get connected with fellowships, service opportunities, and mission experiences. Come be a part of the best way for First Jackson Thirties to connect with God and His people.
